The musical score consists of five systems, each with a grand staff (treble and bass clef). Measure numbers 68, 70, 72, 74, and 76 are indicated at the start of each system. The key signature has two flats (B-flat major). The score includes various musical notations: slurs, ties, and dynamic markings such as cresc., f, rit., and ritardando. The right hand often plays chords and melodic lines, while the left hand provides harmonic support with chords and moving lines. There are also instances of triplets and sixteenth-note patterns.
